TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

Suspensions.

There is great fallacy in the idea that because a bank suspends during a sudden panic, that it has failed. No banking institution receiving deposits can pay off all its depositors at a day's notice without outside aid. It is not to be supposed that a banking institution will assume the care and responsibility of deposits merely for amusement, or pay interest on deposits merely to have a large amount of money in its vaults. Years of experience teach bankers the average amount of money it is necessary to keep on hand to meet the regular business demands of their dealers, and how much they can safely loan. But if a sudden and unforeseen panic takes possession of mankind, and every depositor demands his money at once, the bank must realise upon its bills discounted and other resources at once or suspend. This state of things frequently exists when a panic occurs about an individual bank, and it obtains relief from those not in trouble, which aid, of course, could not be obtained if all the banks had to face the same demand at the same time. During the late troubles, currency was demanded at the counters of all the banks, and those doing the largest business suffered the most. Many heavy Northern houses carry some bonds instead of loaning all of their cash. When the demand came, the price of bonds was so reduced that they could not afford to sell, the "shrinkage in value" often being so great that the sale would simply be ruination. Suspension was the only salvation in such cases, and many of these houses will now resume and pay dollar for dollar.

While we are by no means an advocate of the National Bank system, we are strongly in favor of banks. They are a sort of protective union which enables their managers to loan the surplus funds of one set of men to others who require temporary assistance, thereby aiding both. The business requirements of the country demand such institutions, and they should receive full encouragement and credit when their stockholders are known to be men of integrity and means. With confidence in our home banking institutions, we can laugh at wild-cat railway speculations and Wall Street panics. These will be nothing to us, and their effect would be but slightly felt here. We have bankers here in whom we have confidence. They are our leading men in wealth and integrity, and have a right to demand this public confidence. The experience of the past few weeks is enough to convince any one of their solvency. Now let the deposits flow into their vaults again as before, and all the machinery of business will at once get into operation. The farmers will sell their crops and purchase the merchants' goods, who will pay his Northern indebtedness, and the money will come back to the commission merchants in payment of the crops again. All we need is the start.

Now that the unlooked-for panic appears to have subsided, and business houses begin to transact a little business, we hope to see the Fall trade open here with its accustomed vigor. Our banks have stood the shock nobly, and have demonstrated their soundness and good management, so that we may all breathe easier, and look forward to the good times so earnestly desired. Wilmington was never better supplied with goods than at this moment. Many of our merchants purchased immense stocks in anticipation of a heavy trade, and in fact every indication pointed to large business transactions. It is to be hoped that confidence will again be restored, and trade resume its accustomed channels at no distant day, and we will yet see good times in our midst this Fall. To our country friends we would urge the prompt shipment of crops. It has been the custom of many of our dealers to assist the farmers through the labor season with stores, and to receive their products for sale in the Fall. Many, acting under the examples given by others, have held their products back, waiting for higher prices, or fearful of shipping to the men who have trusted them. We hope this suicidal policy will now cease, and that this month will witness large transactions, mutually beneficial to the farmer and merchant. Farmers must sell and merchants must buy, or both will go the wall. Cannot our stagnant trade be instantly renewed?

Whose Scalp?

The Asheville Pioneer puts it thusly: "A short time ago the Raleigh Sentinel, in commenting upon the Woodfin-Carter libel trial, if we have been correctly informed, very appropriately stated that most of the lawyers engaged in it were 'scalped;' meaning thereby, we suppose, that the litigants escaped from the fray without any serious damage to their reputation, but that some of the lawyers (and they were entirely of the Democratic persuasion) did not fare so well. How this may be we are not exactly prepared to say. It is the ventilation of a Railroad swindle in the Democratic camp, and it seems, if what we have heard be true, that they bespattered each other with any amount of dirt. One thing, we learn, was clearly established, and that was, that Swepson's schemes of plunder were originated, and the means to carry them out were devised and planned, exclusively, by leading Democrats, some of whom are now in high positions.

"This fact ought to be stated and made known by the Republican press in and out of the State, in vindication of the Republican party which has been so ruthlessly and unfairly assailed, on account of its pretended connection with and responsibility for Swepson's acts."

THE Raleigh News is now "astonished at the POST." It is a case of mutual astonishment, but we will settle all surprises on Thursday at the State Fair.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— The following letter was written by the President on Saturday:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
Washington, D. C., Sept. 28,

Messrs. H. B. Claflin and Charles L. Anthony:

Gentlemen—In response to the views you have communicated to me touching the present stringency in the money market of the country, and the necessary steps to restore confidence and legitimate trade and commerce, I have the honor to communicate the following: The Government is desirous of doing all in its power to relieve the present unsettled condition of business affairs, which is holding back the immense resources of the country now awaiting transportation to the seaboard and a market. Confidence on the part of the people is the first thing needed to relieve this condition, and to avert the threatened destruction of business, with its accompanying disasters to all classes of the people. To re-establish this feeling the Government is willing to take all legal measures at its command, but it is evident that no Government efforts will avail without the active co-operation of the banks and moneyed corporations of the country. With the $14,000,000 already paid out in the purchase of the Government indebtedness, and the withdrawal of their large deposits from the Treasury, the banks are now strong enough to adopt a liberal policy on their part, and, by a generous system of discounts, to sustain the business interests of the country. Should such a course be pursued, the $44,000,000 of reserve will be considered as money in the Treasury to meet the demands of the public necessity, as the circumstances of the country may require. Close attention will be given to the course pursued by those who have the means at their command of rendering all the aid necessary to restore trade to its proper channels and condition. With a view of strengthening the hands of those who carry out the measures indicated above, orders have already been issued for the prepayment of the interest accruing in November.

[Signed,] U. S. GRANT.

— A special to the N. Y. Times from Washington says:

There is no change, present or prospective, that can be learned in the attitude of the Government in respect to the financial disturbances. There prevails generally in Government circles a more hopeful feeling, though there is certainly not absent anxiety and a sense of uncertainty as to the end. The power of the Government to do more is regarded as absolutely ended, even though further measures could have the sanction of law. Besides the $13,000,000 of legal tender notes which the Government has exchanged for bonds in New York, the banks there have now made drafts on their reserve deposits in the Sub-Treasury to the amount of $22,000,000. The legality of the use of this amount of the fixed reserve, if made, is likely to be questioned. It is not understood that any of the reserve has been paid out, but it has been drawn from the Treasury undoubtedly for use if occasion demands, and it was certainly for times like the present that the law requiring the reserve was intended.

The debt statement for the present month will show no greater reduction on account of the purchase of the $13,000,000 of bonds, though that reduction has in fact been made. So far as the accounts of the Treasury now show, however, the transaction is simply an exchange of assets for liabilities. But these bonds cannot again be issued, and the interest on them is stopped. It is only after they have been examined and destroyed that they will enter into the monthly statement as a reduction of the debt.

One source of encouragement and hopefulness is the increase of Customs receipts, which were larger yesterday than any day since the beginning of the panic. Whether that increase was accidental, or due to any improvement in the situation, can only be determined by the events of to-morrow and the next day. Two hundred thousand dollars were taken from the banks here to New York in one day last week.

— Secretary Robeson has addressed a letter to Senator Sargent, in which he refers as follows to a request from the Board of Supervisors and a Committee of the Mechanics' Deliberative Assembly of San Francisco, for the loan of a ship for the instruction of boys in seamanship, and such mechanical trades as can be conveniently introduced on shipboard. "The Navy Department is in full accord with the spirit of these resolutions, and will be ready at all times to do whatever it legally can to forward the objects sought to be obtained, and will, moreover, should the scheme be put in practical operation, be willing to take into the service, under proper regulations, a large proportion, if not all, of the seamen thus produced. Entertaining these views, I have given consideration to the question as to the authority of the Department in the premises, and I find that, though ships of the Navy not in commission have at various times been loaned to public authorities for sanitary purposes, and in other cases of pressing emergency, there is no precedent of a loan made by departmental authority alone for permanent use. Under these circumstances, although I have the proper ships at command, I would prefer to wait for legislative authority before complying with your request. I shall be happy to co-operate with you for the purpose of obtaining the legislative authority necessary, and if thought best to inaugurate some general system upon this subject which will apply to both coasts; and operate alike for the benefit of the community and the interests of the service."

Henry Robinson, assault and battery on Ben Lane. Fined one cent and costs.

This is the third policeman 'Squire Moore has tried for violating the State laws, and he expects "to be hauled up again" for it.

FURNITURE.—D. A. Smith calls attention to his immense stock of furniture to-day. There will be no better time than the present to purchase articles in his line, as goods can be bought low for cash. He certainly exhibits a splendid stock to select from, and every one can be suited not only as to quality but also as to price.

FOX CHASE.—A party of gentlemen from this city yesterday went out fox chasing and succeeded in capturing two of the "varmints," one of which they pursued upward of three hours and finally captured him. They returned to the city about 2 o'clock, pretty well soaked, and feeling rather under the weather from their day's sport.

PROBATE COURT.—A white woman, while in jail last June, permitted her child, which, by the by, is a bright mulatto, to be bound to a respectable colored woman in this city, and yesterday her love for the little cherub overcame her so completely, that, with streaming eyes, she prayed the Judge to return her child. An investigation was had this morning, and a compromise effected. The white woman paid the colored woman ten dollars for her care of the child to date, and again she clasped it to her bosom and was happy.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

Mary Walker was fined $10 and cost or sentenced to thirty days imprisonment in the Workhouse for worshipping at the shrine of Bacchus. Not being able to furnish the wherewith to prevent her residing with the genial Van Amringe, she was conducted out under the protection of a policeman.

Aggregate tonnage, 23,270.

Aggregate Foreign tonnage, 5,503.

Pilots report of soundings on Bars and Rips, at low water, is as follows: Western Bar, 11 feet 6 inches; Rip, 7 feet 6 inches. New Inlet, South Sleu, 7 feet 6 inches; Rip, 11 feet.

B. G. BATES, Harbor Master.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Gold is 110½.

— Pave the streets.

— Keep the Water Works question moving.

— Sad is the man who starts out on a collecting tour to-day.

— "Home again"—the crowds of summer wanderers returning.

— Considerable travel now, and hotels are doing a fair business.

— Rice birds have given way to coots, as melons retired before grapes.

— Gen. Abbott passed through the city yesterday on the way to Abbottsburg.

— A delightfully cool, sunny day.—Just right for moving. Couldn't be better.

— The passengers by the Bay route missed connection at Weldon yesterday morning.

— Very dark and rainy last night. The Almanac said moon, so we had but few lamps.

— The Opera House is being renovated and painted, so that it is impossible to give a concert there for the benefit of the Oxford Asylum this week.

HUNTER'S INFIRMARY, at Goldsboro, N. C., is offered to those who suffer with cancers and other diseases. The Infirmary is a large, commodious and airy building, and is well adapted for the wants of Dr. Hunter, who has established a very enviable reputation for himself in his profession, and who sustains his well won laurels with great eclat. The apartments are furnished with neat sets of cottage furniture, and the whole building presents an air of neatness and comfort that is seldom if ever seen in like institutions. See advertisement in another column.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred yesterday on the Tarboro Branch Railroad, which resulted in the death of one man. The particulars are as follows: The accident occurred at the terminus of Tarboro Branch Road, about two miles below Tarboro, on a portion of road used only in the winter months. The engineer had no authority or orders to go on the trestle work, until it had been examined and found to be in good order, after the long and continuous rains, but he run his engine on it and it fell, precipitating the engine into the water. The engineer, Joe Sellars, was badly hurt, and the fireman was drowned. This will not interfere with the regular business of the road, however, and the engine was a small one, not much used.

GOOD.—The Raleigh Sentinel has of late assumed the duties of an instructor of the State press, and attempts to teach all other papers how to get up their State news. We have called attention to it on several occasions in a jocular way—for we care nothing about its flurries—but the Weldon News gives it so fine a hit we "feel called upon" to publish the squib. Here it is:

The Raleigh Sentinel, usually one of the most correct and careful of our exchanges in giving credit, has an article entitled—"Evils of not giving credit," in its issue of the 23d, and along side of it one of our local items with never a bit of mark to denote its origin. We rarely refer to such things, but this struck us as being a little out of the line of consistency.

INDIAN HUNTING. — The Indian method of hunting the deer and antelope seems to a looker-on, not heated by the chase, cruel sport. But food is the object of the Indian hunter, and he is wonderfully successful in securing it. Notwithstanding their great speed and bottom, these animals seldom escape their pursuers on the open prairie. Mounted on their swift ponies, the Indians become as it were a pack of hounds that run by sight. In all directions they move, searching the country with eyes that see everything. On discovering deer no attempt is made at concealment, but, with bridle rein between their teeth, loading their guns or adjusting their arrows as they ride, the hunters bear down on the doomed animals. Off bound the deer, but Indians are before them; they run to the right—more Indians; to the left—still Indians. The country, which at first seemed open, narrows to a small circle. The deer double on themselves. Hemmed in on every side, there is no escape; the bullet and the arrow do their work. All their hunting, whether of man or beast, involves a system of surrounding. It is this method, throughly understood, and invariably practiced where numbers will allow, that renders the Indian so formidable on the prairie. Although numbers are in at the death, there is no dispute as to the distribution of the carcasses. —Hunt with the Yankton Sioux in the October Galaxy.

It is the mind that makes the body rich; and as the sun breaks through the darkest clouds, so honor gleams in the meanest habits.

Man is physically, as well as metaphysically, a thing of shreds and patches, borrowed unequally from good and bad ancestors, and a misfit from the start.

STATE ITEMS.

Raleigh is to have a pork-packing establishment in operation in November.

Raleigh brags on its Schillinger pavement. Wilmington wants some too, right now.

Skiff & Gaylord's Minstrels will toot their horns and amuse the Raleighites on Thursday night.

Westmoreland county, N. Y., has already sent a coop of game fowls to Raleigh to the State Fair.

Mrs. Eliza E. Turner, aged 84 years, the mother of the editor of the Sentinel, died on the 23d September.

Wm. B. Hill, of Maryland, has been appointed by Gov. Caldwell Commissioner of Deeds for North Carolina.

The New-Berne Times man beats us again on the cucumber question. He is bragging now of one a yard in length.

John Cain, a colored blacksmith of Fayetteville, died very suddenly on Friday night. His life was insured for $1,500.

Judge Henry will hold the special term of the Superior Court for Guilford county, appointed by Gov. Caldwell, to convene on the 8th December.

A Raleigh rat-killer bagged thirty-seven full grown rats, with a stick, in an old barn, the other day, about five hundred making good their escape.

The Sheriff of Davidson county has settled his taxes with the State Treasurer, $8,958 89, being the full amount due the State from that county for the present year.

Fayetteville is excited over the death of the man who was found murdered near there some days ago. His name is supposed to be Williford, and the coroner is doing all he can to unravel the mystery.

Raleigh merchants are complained of by the ladies because of the filthy sidewalks in front of places of business, the ladies complaining that their dresses are soiled when going to church on Sundays.

The trial of David Collins, white, and Alexander Blalock and Jacob Hood, colored, for the murder of Allen Jones, colored, has commenced before His Honor Judge Watts, holding the regular term of Johnston Superior Court.

The Raleigh News wants Ramsay to engineer for them a visit and lecture from Wilkie Collins, now that he is in this country. The conceptor of the character of the fat Count Fosco would receive a warm and hearty reception in Wilmington.

Raleigh, following, the good example set her by Wilmington, has caught the fever of improvements, and many fine new buildings is the consequence. The shanty which has been used as the office of the News, is soon to give way to a handsome building.

The insurance companies of Raleigh notified the Secretary of the State Fair that if the grounds were kept open on Sundays, before the buildings were completed, they would cancel the policies upon the same, and consequently the grounds were closed on Sunday.

The Asheville Pioneer learns that a man by the name of Shelton was shot and mortally wounded, in Madison county, on last Sunday, and died last Tuesday, by William Hensley. The POST wants to know of the Pioneer if it means to say that the man Shelton died on Tuesday by Hensley, or that he was shot by Hensley and died on Tuesday?

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: Messrs. S. T. Suit, Marshall, and Cross have conditionally accepted the challenge of Mr. R. G. Snead, of North Carolina, for a hunting match, $100,000 to be paid the best hunter, &c. They request Mr. Snead to furnish them references of responsibility, with a view to further negotiations.

Common sense is not a native original faculty, as many believe, but the result of a well-stored intellect, and of faculties trained to discriminate acutely.

Sorrow comes soon enough without despondency; it does a man no good to carry a lightning-rod to attract trouble.

It is of no advantage to have a lively mind if we are not just. The perfection of the pendulum is not to go fast, but to be regular.

Many lose the opportunity of saying a kind thing by waiting to weigh the matter too long. Our best impulses are too delicate to endure much handling.

Conceit and confidence are both of them cheats; the first always imposes on itself, the second as frequently deceives self an others.
